Foundation of Success

Stanton Chase delivers commitment.

More than 70% of our business is derived from repeat business with existing clients. We attribute this to the successful, long-term relationships we have forged with our clients.

True partnership

We consider our relationships with clients to be partnerships. Our senior consultants with the necessary subject-matter expertise interact closely with our clients to execute all searches with precision.

We offer our clients the benefits of a global firm, while we are locally-structured to act and operate as a boutique. Extensive immersion is our policy – we get to know our clients in depth, becoming as familiar as possible with their culture and industry.

Candidates that fit the corporate culture

Our client relationships are not standard business relationships. We are our clients' trusted partner and understand their specific problems, as well as their business and culture, ensuring the selection of the best candidates with the best fit.

We identify the most important factors for success within an organization, involving the senior management team to identify the critical leadership practices. Then we go into great depth to analyze and understand each candidate – not just their past performance and track record, but also their character, background and personality.

The result is fit for purpose leaders who are successful and loyal.

Full transparency

We realize that clear and open communication is paramount in our relationships. To avoid any potential misunderstandings and surprises, we proactively provide clients with complete transparency throughout the entire search process, ensuring the largest measure of integrity, honesty, confidence and trust.

“Stanton Chase has a true understanding of my business; they are an extension of our culture.”

Our Unique Process

Consultative approach

Each engagement begins with in-depth interviews with key stakeholders. A position description is developed to identify the requisite experience, technical skills and critical leadership competencies necessary for top performance.

Once finalized, we use this position description, along with an agreed-upon search strategy, as the foundation for the search. We are in constant communication with the client throughout the entire process, providing insights and analytics for benchmarking.

Talent attraction

Each engagement is customized and uses current research to identify suitable candidates. Our local consultants interact with the candidates in person, taking the utmost care to attractively present the opportunity to the best candidates. In this way, we are able to attract the best potential talent to perfectly fit the position.

Access to top talent globally

Our offices and partners worldwide give us the ability to access top talent across the globe.

Talent assessment

In-depth, face-to-face interviews enable us to further assess the candidate's level of experience, capabilities, and leadership competencies against key selection criteria in the position description. We leverage a range of assessment tools to provide better insight into a given candidate's motivations and odds for success in a specific position. Final recommendations are presented to the client, supported by detailed candidate profiles and evaluations of the candidate's strengths, weaknesses and motivations.

“Stanton Chase really cares about us. They go the extra mile at every step of the process.”

STANTON CHASE

Talent acquisition

With top talent at a premium, a meticulous presentation of our client's organization and the available opportunity is vital. We carefully represent our clients in the marketplace and make the available position as attractive as possible for each identified candidate.

Based on the personal relationship our senior consultant forges with each candidate, we are able to gain a deep understanding of these individuals. We take great care in ensuring a perfect match between the candidate and our client's opportunity.

Candidate on-boarding, integration and coaching

We work to understand the undercurrents of your organization and the implicit effect of policies and procedures. We identify the stewards of your corporate culture, the formal and informal influences, and the prevailing mind-set of your company as an institution. This helps to ensure the successful on-boarding of executive hires.

By means of early-stage engagement assessment, we make the necessary adjustments, manage expectations, and take immediate action to minimize gaps. We obtain feedback from trusted sources in order to help new team members become as effective and efficient as possible in the shortest period of time.

Our undivided attention

Specializing in senior executives, we accept only a limited number of engagements. This allows us to avoid conflict-of-interest issues and to focus on filling these highly exacting positions. As such, we are at our best when we function as trusted advisors to our most demanding clients.

If your company is seeking an expert consultant with the leadership skills to deliver more than just sound advice, Stanton Chase stands ready to fulfill your needs, every step of the way.
